

GOD moments

“Jesus relied on prayer very heavily, always going back to his Father for courage and strength for what He wanted him to do. He also needed to rely on Him for guidance and courage when things seemed impossible.

Prayer helped me this summer. It undergirded me with strength through the prayers of our church family. God does answer prayers - not always the way we want, but when we look back, we see it was the way that God meant it to be.

My closest moment to Christ is always at communion when I reflect on the sacrifice that has been made by our living God, the Messiah. I am also touched when my family gets together and each of us talks about how we’ve been involved in our church. It gives me courage that somewhere along the line, Rosemary and I must have done something right to get our children focused on what is really important.”
